

Boulder Mountains

Dr. Merle Wells was contacted in the summer of 1961 for an opinion on the application of the name Boulder Mountains.

He agreed to the western limitations as described in the present ruling but felt that these mountains should not include Glassford Peak and Ryan Peak. This would place the eastern limit at the saddle formed by Ibex Creek and North Fork Big Wood River.